

Elizabeth Tarr - Selected Exhibitions (since 2005)

- 2015 "Fabric and Stone" (with stonecarver), Burgh House Museum, Hampstead, London
"62 Group Now", Upfront Gallery, Penrith, Cumbria
- 2014 "British Textile art", Koyo Gallery, Showa University, Tokiyō, Japan
"Music Makers", Bluecoat Display Centre, Liverpool
- 2013 "Rendevous Goldsmiths", Ruthin Craft Centre, Denbighshire
- 2012 "Lady of the Forest", twinning of South African and Waltham Forest artists
"Interventions", Gallery of Costume, Platt Hall, Manchester
- 2011 "At a Tangent", Gallery Oldham, Oldham, Greater Manchester
- 2010 "Out of Indigo", Solo Exhibition at The Knitting & Stitching Show, touring Alexander Palace London, Harrogate, and Dublin
- 2009 "Bending the Line", at The Hub, National Centre for Craft & Design, Sleaford, Lincs
- 2008 "Size Matters", at Rochester Art Gallery
- 2007 Group show with The Knitting & Stitching Show, Alexander Palace London, Harrogate and Dublin
- 2006 "In Conversation", joint residency and exhibition with mask maker, Changing Rooms Gallery, Walthamstow, London
- 2005 "Encounters", response to the collection of the Museum of Zoology, Cambridge

Travel Scholarships

- 2000 Gujarat, India: to study indigo dyeing and quilts (funded by European Social Fund)
- 1987-1989 Bulgaria, Romania, Transylvania: to study folklore and folk costume (funded by British Council)

Education

- 2000 M.A. Applied Art (Distinction), University of Ulster, Belfast
- 1986 B.A. Hons. (1st), Goldsmith's College, London
- 1983 Foundation Art Studies, Bristol Polytechnic

Additional Information

- Member of The 62 Group of Textile Artists since 1989
- Work in private collections throughout UK, Ireland, Germany and America
- Work in the University of Ulster permanent collection
- Awarded Arts Society of Ulster Student Award 2000
- Featured in Embroidery Magazine, Crafts Magazine and Textiel
- Featured in "Encyclopaedia of Papercraft and Origami Techniques" (Pub. Quarto 1993)
- Currently Artist-in-Residence in three Primary schools in Waltham Forest, London